The Human Sciences Education Research Group was formed in February 2011. It comprises members from the Macquarie University’s Department of Chiropractic and their collaborators from Australia and abroad. The group’s main research focus is education in complementary and alternative medicine, particularly chiropractic, as well as basic medical sciences such as anatomy. Members of HSERG offer a number of research projects for Master of Chiropractic students and Higher Degree Research candidates (for more details please contact group members directly).

Members

A/Prof. Goran Štrkalj (Group Leader), goran.strkalj@mq.edu.au or +61 (0)2 9850 6197

Dr Robyn Beirman, robyn.beirman@mq.edu.au or +61 (0)2 9850 6392

Aron Downie, aron.downie@mq.edu.au or +61 (0)2 9850 6382

Rosemary Giuriato, rosemary.giuriato@mq.edu.au or +61 (0)2 9850 6992

Reidar Lystad, reidar.lystad@mq.edu.au

Curtis Rigney, Curtis.rigney@mq.edu.au or +61 (0)2 9850 9381

Dr Stephney Whillier, stephney.whillier@mq.edu.au or +61 (0)2 9850 9387

Publications

2011

2012
